HI MATT!!!!

17:29:35 From Pohl Barn:
Are you in Michigan Matt

17:30:10 From Hank:
Could we see Stephen Olde's shopmade chatter tool?

17:30:29 From Billy:
If anyone knows turners with Powermatic 3520B lathes and the inverter goes, or went out, my YouTube video this week shows how to replace it with a much less expensive inverter.

17:30:38 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
he's in the queue

17:31:12 From Matt Harber:
I am, Doug (Pohl Barn). Northwest of Detroit. You?

17:31:28 From Pohl Barn:
south of Lansing,

17:31:34 From Pohl Barn:
Charlotte

17:31:37 From Billy:
The same video also shows how to move the control panel to a wired remote box.

17:33:21 From Chuck Slattery:

I worked for 2 months in Marquette winter '09 Michigan UP was beautiful. Cold and white stuff on the ground but beautiful

17:34:26 From Mark Sillay's iPhone:

I have something to show. mark sillay

17:42:19 From APhillips2227@att.net:
Is it necessary to be bald to be a good woodturner? It is hard on the glare

17:42:29 From Kim Tippin Wood Turning:
lol

17:42:38 From Matt Harber:
Hahahahaha!

17:42:38 From Pohl Barn:
YES IT IS !!!

17:42:42 From Hank:
Thanks Stephen!

17:43:06 From Billy:
Yes, being bald is very necessary

17:43:32 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
ok

17:43:49 From Andy Schuster:
lol, that's why I wear a hat. just to cut glare, Im not a good turner yet

17:44:00 From Pohl Barn:
LOL

17:45:37 From brenda thornton:
im not going bold to get better at turning lmbo

17:45:45 From Doug Rowe out in Arizona:
I'm about to make a pencil blank to you all want to see it let Dane know

17:46:43 From Pohl Barn:

OH NO DOUG you switched Sides !! LOL

17:47:06 From Billy:
LOL, Brenda

17:47:56 From Billy:
A little small isn't it? LOL

17:54:01 From Jeffrey Schnell:
gallery

17:54:25 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
ok

17:59:20 From Tres Lennep:
I have something to show

17:59:32 From Gerald Avery, Winter Haven, Fl:
another good night of sharing. thanks youall.

18:03:34 From John Brown:
I have a couple of ornaments to show

18:03:39 From Hank:
GOOD NITE!

18:04:10 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
ok J

18:07:53 From Chuck Slattery:
is that a specific resin that foams?

18:08:11 From Chuck Slattery:
i know we talked last week about wet wood foaming?

18:08:26 From Billy:
Being called to dinner... night, all

18:08:27 From Matt Harber:
Many (most) will foam without pressure curing.

18:08:45 From Pohl Barn:
Alumilite clear slow and fast need to be pressurized or they will foam

18:09:02 From Billy:
Still listening though

18:09:12 From Pohl Barn:
Night Billy

18:09:24 From Chuck Slattery:
even on thin pours and torching out the bubbles?

18:09:38 From Matt Harber:
I've not had Amazing Clear Cast (Hobby Lobby, also an alumilite product) foam while curing. But it takes forever to set.

18:09:55 From Pohl Barn:
Amazing clear cast is different

18:10:30 From Pohl Barn:
Moisture will also make the resin foam or bubble

18:11:02 From Chuck Slattery:
i use a pressure pot on my bowl work but when i do tables and flat pours i torch.

18:11:22 From Chuck Slattery:
is clear Cast different than epoxy resin?

18:12:09 From Chuck Slattery:
i have experience foaming with a pine cone even in the pressure pot

18:12:28 From Pohl Barn:
I have never used clear cast, doesn't that stuff set up in minutes

18:12:49 From Pohl Barn:
pine cones hold moisture

18:12:52 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
moisture in the pine cone

18:13:31 From Chuck Slattery:
that's what i assumed caused it after talking with some other members here

18:13:59 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
yeppers

18:14:33 From Matt Harber:
I was mixing the amazing clear cast with aluminum powder, which might have affected curing time.

18:14:56 From Steve:
I've never turned epoxy. But I do use it to pot electronics. It works great without pressure or vacuum. However degassing epoxy is preferred.

18:15:13 From Pohl Barn:
Temp will change the set up time for Alumilite, the cooler the longer you have to work with it

18:17:37 From Jack, Victoria, Texas:
Dane, show us what's on that lathe behind you.

18:17:43 From Jason Collett:
I have an issue lol

18:18:16 From Pohl Barn:
let See what's on Stephen's Lathe, looked like I big ol end grain cedar turn

18:19:07 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
will queue us up!

18:19:15 From Jake:
I've got a couple things to share, if I can figure out how to share my pictures on the computer.

18:20:19 From Chuck Slattery:
we have something small.

18:20:42 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
ok

18:27:32 From Billy:
I'm back

18:27:39 From Matt Harber:

18:33:51 From Kim Tippin Wood Turning:
Dane and Stephen STILL NEED TO SHARE

18:34:52 From Dan Rozell:
Jason Collett has an issue - I love hearing solutions, hopefully we get to him too.

18:35:58 From Pohl Barn:
is that a black Powermatic ?

18:38:26 From Matt Harber:
That's him getting too far from his wif...

18:39:29 From Dave Leader:
Lace it with 18 ga like a shoe lace

18:40:41 From Andy Schuster:
bowties would look cool, maybe walnut or another contrasting wood

18:48:30 From Chuck Slattery:
For YOU OOONEEEE DOLLLLLAR

18:48:38 From Gerald Jensen:
Good night all!

18:48:58 From Andy Schuster:
good night folks, great meeting and see ya next week

18:49:00 From Dave - Crescent City:
Night all

18:49:16 From Stephen Ogle:
Night everyone!!

18:49:21 From Billy:
Yes, Doug, Powermatic used black for all their 90th anniversary tools

18:49:42 From huck joe kansas:
Good Night to All
