16:37:20 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
go ahead dave

16:37:40 From Dave - Crescent City:
Thanks Dane

16:39:40 From brenda thornton:
can I record please

16:45:26 From Steve Thomason:
Do you have the .stl file for that?

16:45:52 From Matt Harber:
Ditto, on the STL file?

16:50:43 From Matt Harber:
I have stuff to show...

16:51:40 From dickstohr:
dick stohr I have a pen to show

16:52:12 From Glenn Dornak:
I have a bowl

16:52:13 From Billy Dillard Houma, Louisiana:
I have an ornament to show

16:52:18 From Dane Chandler -Tucson AZ:
will pan to you guys n3xt

16:54:23 From Stanley Keenum:
Matt, how do you use the foam without wasting it and without buying high dollar applicators?

16:55:07 From Doug Rowe in Arizona:
hey Dane I'll jump in when you get a spot for me

16:56:18 From Matt Harber:
Yes, Stanley. I do about 20-30 of the sea urchin shells at a time. Fill 'em about half full, because the foam expands.

16:56:45 From Matt Harber:
I tape off the small hole in the shell...

16:58:06 From Stanley Keenum:
Thanks, I seldom do more than 3 or 4 at a time and hate to waste most of the can of foam. I wish there were a way to seal and re-use can. Thanks, Matt.

16:58:39 From Johnny Hughes:
I have a couple of ornaments

17:00:05 From Matt Harber:
I do think it would work for a few ornaments,
Stanley... you just have to clear the tube so it doesn't clog up. You're welcome!

17:01:41 From Josh:
I have something to show

17:02:00 From Matt Harber:
3D Printer, center finder: <https://www.thingiverse.com/thing:643558>

17:08:14 From Billy:
I don't have anything with an "I" in it.

17:10:09 From Dan Douthart:
I have a 2x4 ornament to show.

17:13:56 From huck joe kansas:
3dp.rocks.com for lithophane picture to stl

17:14:33 From Matt Harber:
THanks, Huck!

17:14:39 From Dave - Crescent City:
Thanks for the address

17:16:05 From Andy Schuster:
