upon further looking at my unknown tool,
I found a marking - One Way 2176, it is a Termite Hollowing Tool. Sorry, I should've looked at it closer earlier.

17:06:13 From Matt Harber:
Cool!

17:07:30 From Doug Miller in KY:
Dan, that's great. the termite is a good tool. I need to set things up so I can sharpen mine. other than that it works great.

17:08:21 From Dave - Crescent City:
Ask people to put their city, state, country on the Chat and I will put it on the worldwidewoodturners.org map.

Good night Gerald

18:53:18 From Paul Hannaby creative-woodturning.com:
you can see my tool rack on my cam!

18:56:41 From Norman Lanford - Washington State:
Don't try to shear scrape the inside of a bowl
with a bowl gouge, it is an invitation to a catch.
On a bowl, shear scraping is effective on the outside of the bowl and very effective. On the inside, use an actual scraper, not a bowl gouge.

Do we want to have suggestion on a new name for the OF COURSE channel. Maybe suggestions and vote over the next few meetings. I think it easy to change the channel name ... right???

19:05:09 From Chuck Slattery Tennessee:
changing the name is easy you do it thru google by clicking on your youtube icon
