I feel targeted. I dropped my skew off the lathe and sliced the power cord for my light.

17:44:52 From Matt Harber to Everyone:
That's very interesting, Joaquin.... I dropped/knocked my skew off the lathe bed and pointy-ended it into my steel-toe boot.... Glad I had them on that day!

17:46:58 From Ron Radliff to Everyone:
If I recall right, Eddie dropped his a few years back and it cut the power cord on his lathe. That was the same night the lights went out at the Saints stadium.
Coincidence? I wonder.
