17:08:16 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):
Bradford Pear is ideal for that kind of work.

17:10:56 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

The Presto was too costly for me. I bought 45° dental handpieces on eBay. (3 of them for ~$60)

17:13:09 From Matt Harber:

I bought a number of NSK clones on ebay for about $15 each....

17:13:34 From Matt Harber:

You want to buy the no-oil ones.

17:21:07 From brenda thornton ohio:

ill be back

17:24:43 From Matt Harber:

Inexpensive high speed air drill on ebay:

<https://www.ebay.com/itm/165402661389>

17:28:11 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

These are similar to mine. I like the angle to keep the bit vertical.

17:29:16 From Bob Texas:

what is the difference between the 4 hole and 2 hole

17:30:04 From Chris Neilan:

This reminds me, I need a new crown!

17:30:09 From Bob Moffett - N.C.:

2 holes

17:30:20 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

4 hole has exhaust returns

17:30:47 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

2 hole vents in the patients mouth □

17:31:44 From Bob Texas:

thanks is the 2 hole better for what we are doing maybe blow the dust away

17:32:21 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

You don't want a water droplet hitting a high speed fragile turbine.

It would destroy it pretty quickly.

17:33:41 From Pete Meyer (Michigan):

Water can form in your hose/piping. Should have the dryer at your low pressure regular at your handpiece

17:37:48 From Dave Rhodes - Crescent City:

I have something to show

18:42:08 From Charlie Bundy Grand Rapids, Mn.:
I have something to show

18:43:01 From Sue @ Largo FL:
Beautiful Dane. Great idea!

18:43:06 From Dave Rhodes - Crescent City to Gerald Jensen(Direct Message):
To make it harder for hackers, we do not have it on the home page. In the middle of the <https://worldwidewoodturners.org/contact/> here is a button that says "Mail List Request."
lick that and it will give you a form to fill with the subject Captain.

18:43:25 From Dave Rhodes - Crescent City to Gerald Jensen(Direct Message):
All that is to hide it from the hackers and spammers.

18:43:44 From Gerald Jensen to Dave Rhodes - Crescent City(Direct Message):
Makes sense ... Thanks!

18:44:06 From Donald Masterton Lara Vic Australia:
goot to go catch you next week
