Recordding

15:38:50 From casey to Everyone:
I'm not following what is happening behind the scenes. Are people complaining about something?

15:39:01 From Dane Chandler - Tucson to Everyone:
No

15:42:11 From Dave Rhodes - Crescent City to Everyone:
Casey, Not exactly complaining. There was a discussion last week about what should dor should not be said about Lichtenburg wood buring tools. Some want no mention on the website about the tool, some want warnings about its dangers noted, some want warnings and suggestions about how to make it a little less dangerous.

15:43:18 From Daniel Smith ,michigan to Everyone:
Hi everyone, How are you doing Eddie. I just resent you the money for the stickers + a few extra for what ever.

15:43:52 From Dave Rhodes - Crescent City to Everyone:
The point was there was suggestions last week that we should dictate than no club members should ever use the units, period. The update Eddie was suggesting we have no right to dictate that no one ever use it. That is up to adults. The topic will be discussed later
